

BRUCE D. ABRAMSON

1-202-362-3181 / bda9@columbia.edu

Ph.D. Computer Science, Columbia University, 1987
J.D. Georgetown University Law Center, 2000
M.S. Computer Science, Columbia University, 1985
B.A. Computer Science and Mathematics, Columbia University, 1983

Bruce Abramson is an expert in the tech sector, with a particular emphasis on the Internet, software, and the still-emerging world of digital content. His background spans quantitative methods, strategy, technology, and the law. He specializes in assessing the viability of business plans in dynamic competitive environments, and in explaining the causal connections between a firm's behavior and its subsequent economic performance.

PRIMARY APPOINTMENTS

Principal, Charles River Associates Incorporated (2000–present).

President, Gordian Solutions, Inc., formerly BDA Consulting (1988–present).

Director of Economic and Policy Analysis, Cambridge Research Associates, Inc. (1994–1996).

Principal Scientist, Information Extraction and Transport, Inc. (1993–1994).

Assistant Professor of Computer Science, University of Southern California (1987–1993).

Postgraduate Research Engineer in Computer Science, University of California at Los Angeles (1985–1987).

OTHER AFFILIATIONS

Adjunct Professor of Engineering and Public Policy, Carnegie Mellon University (2000–2003).

Adjunct Associate Professor of Engineering and Public Policy, Carnegie Mellon University (1994–2000).

Consultant, Charles River Associates Incorporated (1998–2000).

Summer Associate, Shearman & Sterling (July 1999).

Summer Associate, Howrey & Simon (May, June 1999).

Consultant, The Brattle Group (1997–1998).

Consultant in Economic and Environmental Analysis, Atlantic Richfield Company (1988–1994).

Senior Consultant, Arthur Andersen & Co. (1992–1993).

Faculty Associate, Schools of Business and Accounting Advanced Technologies in Information Systems Program, University of Southern California (1990–1993).

Faculty Research Associate of the Social Science Research Institute, University of Southern California (1989–1993).

Senior Advisor, Putnam, Hayes, & Bartlett, Inc. (1991–1992).

Technical Advisor, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (1990–1991).

ACADEMIC HONORS AND AWARDS

Elected to the Order of the Coif, Georgetown University Law Center (2000).

Graduated magna cum laude, Georgetown University Law Center (2000).

Fellow, Institute for International Economic Law, Georgetown University Law Center (1999–2000).

John M. Olin Prize and Fellow, John M. Olin Program in Law and Economics, Georgetown University Law Center (1998–1999).

CALI Awards for Excellence (4) in the study of Administrative Law; Law and Economics; Constitutional Law; and Antitrust Economics and Law, Georgetown University Law Center (1999–2000).

Editorial Staff, Georgetown International Environmental Law Review (1998–2000).

Resident Faculty Fellow, University of Southern California (1990–1993).

Projects in Innovative Teaching Award, University of Southern California (1989).

Graduate Fellow, Columbia University Department of Computer Science (1983–1987).

Assistant Site Supervisor, State University of New York at Buffalo Emeq Hefer Archeological Research Program (1983).

Dean's List, Columbia University, every undergraduate semester (1980–1983); and Georgetown University Law Center, every year of law school (1998–2000).

BAR ADMISSIONS

California (2000).

District of Columbia (2001).

Grants, awards, testimony, and publications available upon request.

Updated May 2003

